Dear Mary Lou,

Just a few hasty lines to say how hypocritical our society is!

As you can see from the enclosed form I live within driving distance of two nuclear reactors. Both of these are run by the U.S. Government, and nudity is permitted. The areas are policed by people from the National Park Service both by car, on foot, and in the case of Smithpoint, even on horseback. These people are friendly and efficient, and in 10 years I have never seen any trouble or disorderly conduct.

The point I would like to make is that our laws are certainly archaic. Why should I be permitted to stroll around

Nude in Rockaway Beach New York — while you are arrested in Rochester
New York for going Topless?

When D. A. Brilleck asks the jury if you were justified in violating the existing law the answer should be a resounding "yes" —

New York, and the entire country has had a double standard on this issue for much too long.

Wishing you an early acquittal
I am.

Sincerely,
Walter E. Magnolia
